5                    Reference:     August 7th, 2003 Prefiled Evidence of Hydro One, page 17 (lines 20-21)

6
7                    Preamble:     “Result in unnecessary and time-consuming disputes over the obligation to 8                    connect where the obligation is shared”

9
10                  Question:

- 11
12                  a) Please explain how such disputes would/could arise when (as other parties to 13                  this proceeding have suggested) both distributors would be obliged to provide 14                  offers to connect and the customer would be responsible for choosing which 15                  distributor would make the actual connection.

16
18                  Response
