Dear Mr. MacDonald:

Re: Combined Distribution Service Area Amendment Proceeding
Board File No. RP-2003-0044, Interrogatories to Applicants

Procedural Order No. 1 for Proceeding RP-2003-0044, issued March 28, 2003 provided that parties and Board staff who wished additional information from the applicants may request that additional information by written interrogatories filed with the Board and delivered to the applicants by June 12, 2003.

Please find attached Board staff interrogatories.

Applicants are reminded that complete responses to the interrogatories are to be provided no later than July 10, 2003.

Yours truly,

Gord Ryckman
Advisor, Energy Licensing

cc Paul Pudge, Board Secretary.

Interrogatories

Hydro One:

1. Please confirm that the amendment application is restricted to the two connections discussed in the evidence.
2. Is Hydro One presently providing service to the two customers Telus Mobility and Ontario Independent Crematorium?
3. Has Veridian Connections Inc. made an offer to connect to the two customers?
4. What information has been provided to Veridian to enable the distributor to make an offer to connect to the two customers?
5. Have either or both of the two customers expressed a preference in regard to which electricity distributor would serve them?
6. Please compare the price, reliability and quality of service that would be offered by Hydro One and Veredian to the two customers.
7. Would the requested amendment have an impact on Hydro One or its customers, other than the two connection customers discussed in the application? If yes, please describe.
8. Would the requested amendment have an impact on Veredian or its customers? If yes, please describe.
