OEB Issues Errata to Union Gas Limited Decision for 2004 Rates

Toronto – The Ontario Energy Board has issued an erratum to its Decision for Union Gas Limited's 2004 rates and other charges for the sale, distribution and storage of natural gas. Revisions were made to reflect changes in the impacts of the findings on the overall revenue sufficiency and delivery sufficiency for 2004. The Board's findings remain unaltered.

The overall sufficiency has been restated as $76.712 million, from $85.652 million with an associated delivery sufficiency as $1.485 million, from $4.865 million.

For a copy of the errata, the Union Decision (RP-2003-0063) or more information on the Board, please visit our web site at www.oeb.gov.on.ca or contact the Customer Service Centre at 416-314-2455 or toll-free at 1-877-632-2727.

The Ontario Energy Board is the regulator of Ontario's natural gas and electricity industries.
