

Proposed Amendments to the Distribution System Code
RP-2004-0166

1

Section 1.7 of the Code is amended as follows:

2

“The amendments to this Code made by the Board on (insert date when made by Board) come into effect 30 days after this date. [Note: Sections 2.4.6.2, 3.1.1, 4.2.5, 4.2.5.2, 4.2.5.3, 4.2.6 and 4.3.3].”

3

Section 2.4.6.2 is revoked.

4

Section 3.1.1 second last bullet point is amended to include:

5

“...or for non-payment of a security deposit. The distributor shall give the person a reasonable opportunity to provide the security deposit consistent with section 2.4.20”

6

Section 3.1.1 last bullet point is revoked.

7

Section 4.2.5 is renamed 4.2.5.1.

8

Section 4.2.5 is amended by two new sections.

9

Section 4.2.5.2

10

“A distributor may recover from the customer responsible for the disconnection reasonable costs associated with disconnection.”

11

Section 4.2.5.3

12

“A distributor may recover from a property owner reasonable costs associated with reconnection.”

13

Section 4.2.6 has added as the second-last bullet point:

14

“If the person owes the distributor money for distribution services, or for a security deposit. The distributor shall give the person a reasonable opportunity to provide the security deposit consistent with section 2.4.20.”

15

Section 4.2.6 last bullet point revoked.

16

Section 4.3.3 is amended to read:

17

“A distributor may recover from the customer responsible for the unauthorized energy use all reasonable costs incurred by the distributor arising from unauthorized energy use.”

18

June 02, 2004

19