

Connection Timelines – Capacity Allocation Exempt (CAE) Small Generation Facilities

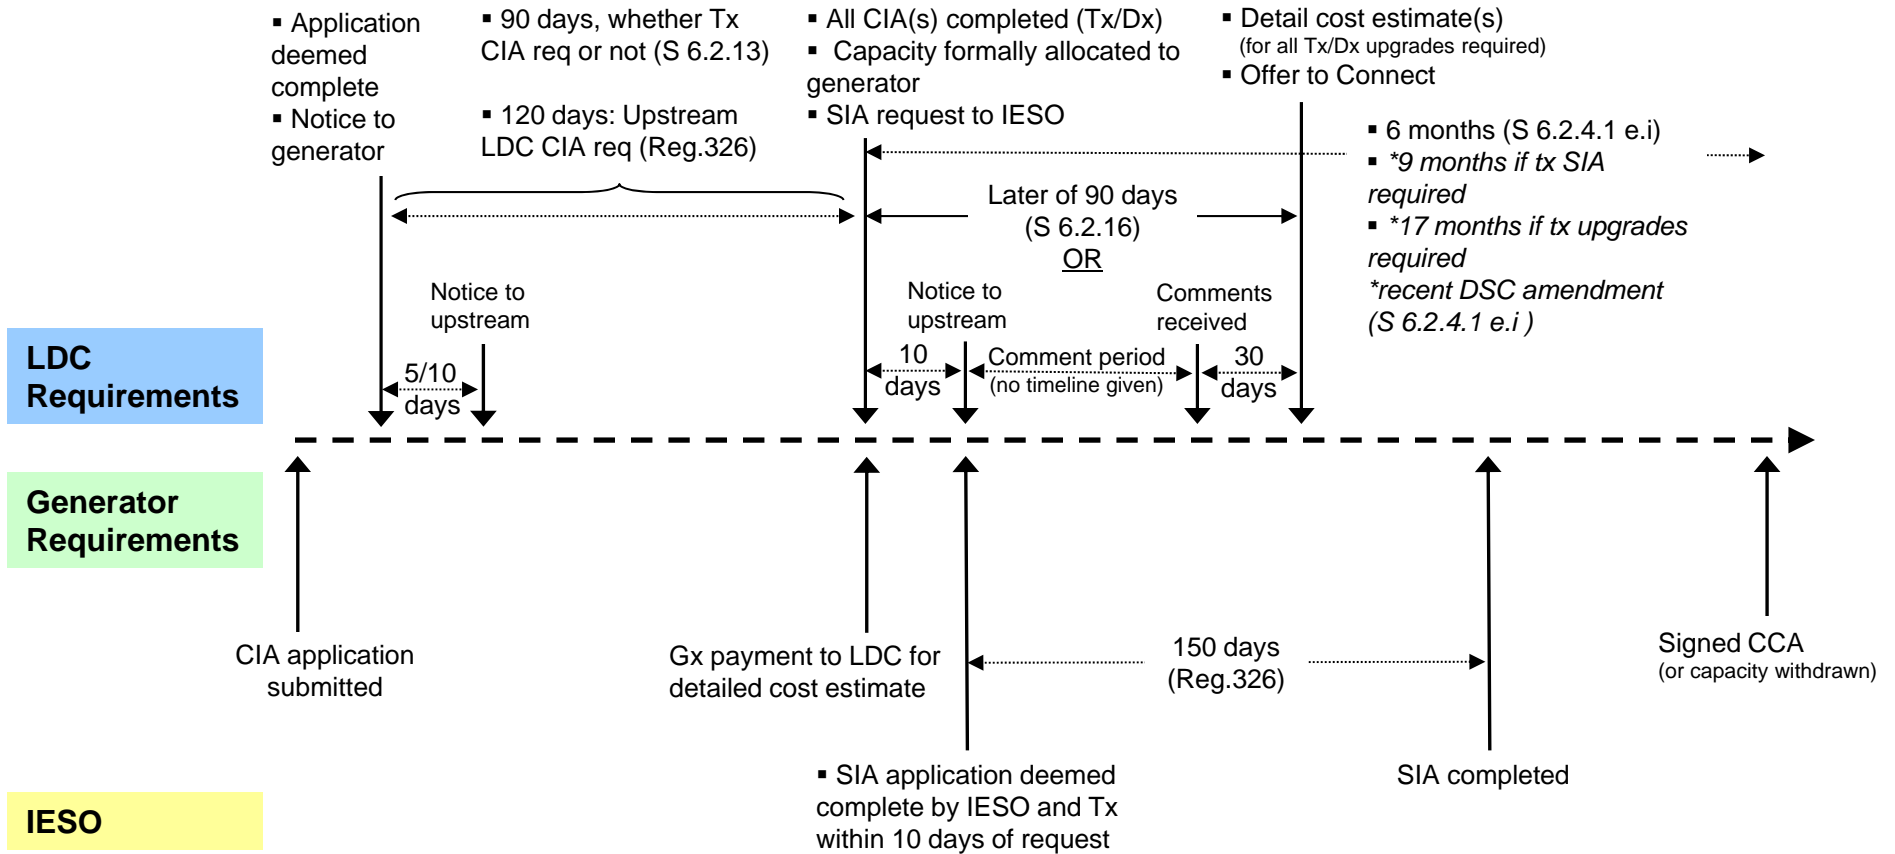

CAE Small generation facilities means a distribution-connected facility greater than 10 kW (micro) and is 250 kW or less if connected to a less than 15 kV line and 500 kW or less if connected to a 15 kV or greater line.

Connection Timelines – Small and Mid-Sized Generation Facilities

Small generation facilities means distribution-connected facility greater than 10 kW (micro) and is 500 kW or less if connected to a less than 15 kV line and 1 MW or less if connected to a 15 kV or greater line.
 Mid-sized generation facilities means distribution-connected facilities with capacity of 10 MW or less and not a micro or small or generation facility.

Connection Timelines – Large Generation Facilities

Large generation facilities means distribution-connected facilities with capacity of greater than 10 MW.