If no, the verification representative may ask the consumer if there is a more convenient time to call, but otherwise the call must be terminated.

Inbound Introduction

1. “Thank you for calling [retailer name], my name is [verification representative’s name]. Can I please confirm that you are calling to verify that you would like to proceed with a contract with [retailer name] for the provision of your electricity”? Y/N

If no, the verification representative may either end the call or transfer the call to the correct department at the retailer to deal with the consumer’s enquiry.

2. “May I please confirm that you are the electricity account holder”? Y/N

If no - “Are you the spouse of the account holder”? Y/N

If no – “Are you specifically authorized by the account holder to make decisions in regards to the electricity supply for this [residence / business]”? Y/N

If no, the verification representative shall indicate to the consumer that the verification process cannot proceed because the consumer does not appear to have the authority to verify the contract, and the call must then be terminated.

All calls

3. “Are you comfortable for this call to proceed in English”? Y/N

If no – “Is there someone present that speaks English and can assist you with this call”? Y/N

If no – “Is there a more convenient time when we can call back when there will be someone that speaks English and can assist you with this call”? Y/N

If yes, the verification representative can confirm the arranged time and end the call thanking the consumer for their time.

If no, the call must be terminated. The call must also be terminated if the verification representative knows or ought to know that the consumer is not reasonably able to protect his or her interests by reason of inability to understand English. In this case, before terminating the call the verification representative must explain to the consumer the reason for not proceeding with the verification process.

4. “Just to let you know, this call is being recorded for regulatory and quality control purposes. Are you comfortable with this call being recorded”? Y/N

If no, the verification representative shall explain to the consumer why the verification process cannot proceed. The verification representative may ask the consumer if there is a more convenient time to call again, but otherwise the call must then be terminated.

5. “Today’s date is [date]”.

6. “The purpose of this call is to verify that you would like to continue with a contract with [retailer name] for the provision of your electricity and to go over certain key terms of the contract you signed on [date]”.

7. “We are allowed to contact you to verify the contract between 10 and 45 days after you received a written copy of the contract that you signed”.

8. “Please note that you are under no obligation to verify this contract. Do you understand that if you choose not to verify this contract, you will not have to pay any cancellation fees and that the supply of your electricity will not be interrupted”? Y/N

9. "Our records state that you received and signed a written copy of the contract on [date] for a term of [x] years at a price of [price details]. Can you please confirm that this is correct"? Y/N

If based on the date of receipt of the contract, verification is occurring outside of the 10-45 day window, the verification representative must explain to the consumer why the verification process cannot proceed, and the call must then be terminated.

10. "[Retailer name] is required to provide you with a disclosure statement and a price comparison document that contain important information about electricity contracts. Did you receive and sign a copy of the disclosure statement and the price comparison document"? Y/N

If the consumer does not recall whether they received and signed the documents, the verification representative may offer to send a copy of the signed documents to the consumer by email or other means of delivery. The verification representative may also ask the consumer if there is a convenient time to call again once the copies of the documents have been received by the consumer, but otherwise the call must then be terminated.

If the consumer indicates that they did not receive and sign the documents, the verification representative must explain to the consumer why the verification process cannot proceed, and the call must then be terminated.
