Re: Fiscal Year Holiday Timeout Period Reminder

The Ontario Energy Board (OEB) holiday timeout period for the 2022-2023 fiscal year will be from December 17, 2022, to January 7, 2023.

The holiday timeout recognizes that many offices are closed or operating with limited staff during the late December and early January period and, as a result, are generally not in a position to meet adjudicative deadlines. During this period, the OEB will avoid issuing decisions and documents that require immediate action from recipients or plan procedural steps, except in unique circumstances, such as where a delay might restrict implementation of January 1st rates or time-sensitive approvals.

The OEB reminds parties that regardless of the time of year, where a document is filed after the OEB's hours of operation, it shall be deemed to have been filed on the next day that is not a holiday.

To assist parties in their planning for the 2023-2024 fiscal year, the OEB is tentatively scheduling December 18, 2023, to January 5, 2024 as the next holiday timeout period.

Sincerely,

Nancy Marconi
